

WORLD FOOD DAY

Food is our right: The struggle for equitable food systems

16 October 2020
12:00-14:00 (CAT)

LIVE ON ZOOM & FACEBOOK

REGISTER NOW

On the 16th October, World Food Day will be commemorated amid unprecedented global challenges. To mark the occasion, join a panel of leading academics and activists at a social dialogue where they will propose ways to ensure lasting food security in South Africa and transform the country's food system.

To participate in this World Food Day dialogue live on Zoom: <http://bit.ly/ZWFD>
Register at <http://bit.ly/Righttofood> to get this in your calendar or request data
Follow live on Facebook: <http://bit.ly/PlaasFB>

PROGRAMME

GLOBAL PERSPECTIVES

TIME: 12:00

SPEAKERS: Sofia Monsalve – Global Director, Food First Information Action Network (FIAN)
Sagari Ramdas – Food Sovereignty Alliance, India

Sofia Monsalve

Sagari Ramdas

AFRICAN PERSPECTIVES

TIME: 12:30

ROUNDTABLE: Small-scale farmers, fishers and traders on COVID-19 and African food systems

SPEAKERS: Naseegh Jaffer (RSA) – Masifundise Development Trust
Patricia Blankson Akakpo (GH) – Network for Women's Rights in Ghana
Joe Mzinga (TZ) – East & Southern African Small-Scale Farmers' Forum

Naseegh Jaffer

Joe Mzinga

Patricia Blankson Akakpo

SOUTH AFRICAN PERSPECTIVES

TIME: 13:00

SPEAKERS: Julian May – Centre of Excellence in Food Security
Denia Jansen – Mawubuye Land Rights Forum small-scale farmers and rural landless
Lindokuhle Mnguni – Abahlali baseMjondolo shack dwellers' movement

Julian May

Denia Jansen

Lindokuhle Mnguni

DEMANDS, STRATEGIES & NEXT STEPS

TIME: 13:40
Open Forum

CLOSING

TIME: 14:00

This event is co-hosted by the Institute for Poverty, Land and Agrarian Studies (PLAAS) at the University of the Western Cape, Centre for Excellence in Food Security and C19 People's Coalition Food Working Group
Twitter hashtags: #WorldFoodDay #Africanfoodsystems #WFD2020 #Right2Food

